Chronicles of a “subversive” journalist, 2020-2021-2022

by Eric Montana

I suffered and endured everything by the time this book came out. My formatted "colleagues" made no effort to examine all the elements I submitted to their attention. In their eyes, I was nothing more than a "subversive" and "conspiracy theorist" journalist...

The jeers stopped when Dr. Olivier Soulier and I received the "Humanity Award" from the World Academy of BioMedical Technologies, chaired by Professor Joseph Tritto, on the same day and in the same city where Anthony Fauci received the "Honoris Causa" from the University of Siena.

The world's largest medical and scientific community, working within the framework of UNESCO and the UN, has decided to award us this prize for our contribution to the search for truth.

We even received compliments and encouragement from the current US Secretary of Health, Robert F. Kennedy, via live broadcast from the USA, broadcast on giant screens in the parks of the city of Siena where "antivax" protesters were demonstrating against Fauci's presence.

Unfortunately, this Prize also put Olivier and me in danger... And a month and a half later, Dr. Olivier Soulier died in strange circumstances. My turn will probably come...

This book is my testament. It is a cry to awaken the collective conscience in the face of the most vicious and sophisticated crime against humanity in human history.

Today, more than 200 million people have died following the vaccination campaign and several billion are suffering seriously disabling side effects.

No media outlet is talking about it and the complicit governments are acting as if nothing is happening... putting this matter under Defense Secret for 75 years... and thus guaranteeing their impunity.

But as true as the immanent justice of God exists, the time will come when that which is kept secret will be revealed…

And as the anthropologist Alexis Bugnolo rightly said:

«When people realize that they have been lied to, that they have been deceived into injecting themselves with a drug that makes them sick and kills them, they will want revenge on governments, doctors, and journalists.»

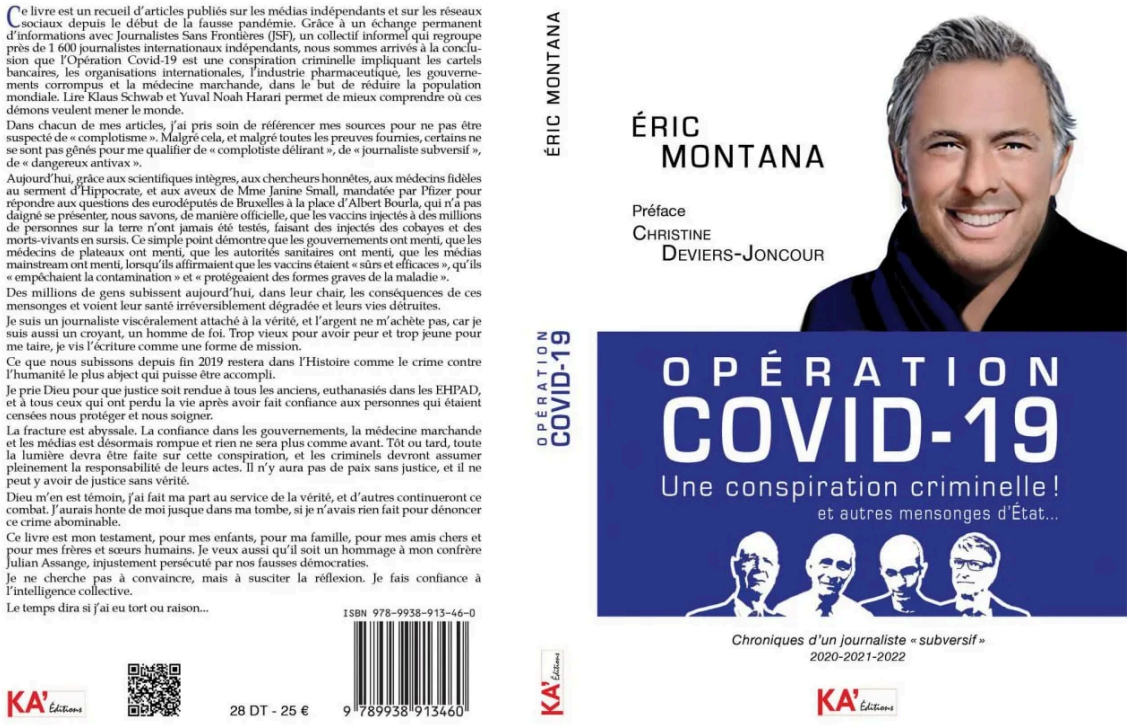
And as I wrote from 2021 to 2023, time will tell if I was right or wrong...

Thanks to Hichem Kacem, the publisher of La Résistance, for taking the risk of publishing my book, blacklisted by all the media because it was deemed "too subversive"...



Ce livre est un recueil d'articles publiés sur les médias indépendants et sur les réseaux sociaux depuis le début de la fausse pandémie. Grâce à un échange permanent d'informations avec Journalistes Sans Frontières (JSF), un collectif informel qui regroupe près de 1 600 journalistes internationaux indépendants, nous sommes arrivés à la conclusion que l'Opération Covid-19 est une conspiration criminelle impliquant les cartels bancaires, les organisations internationales, l'industrie pharmaceutique, les gouvernements corrompus et la médecine marchande, dans le but de réduire la population mondiale. Lire Klaus Schwab et Yuval Noah Harari permet de mieux comprendre où ces démons veulent mener le monde.
Dans chacun de mes articles, j'ai pris soin de référencer mes sources pour ne pas être suspecté de « complotisme ». Malgré cela, et malgré toutes les preuves fournies, certains ne se sont pas gênés pour me qualifier de « complotiste délirant », de « journaliste subversif », de « dangereux antivax ».
Aujourd'hui, grâce aux scientifiques intègres, aux chercheurs honnêtes, aux médecins fidèles au serment d'Hippocrate, et aux aveux de Mme Janine Small, mandatée par Pfizer pour répondre aux questions des eurodéputés de Bruxelles à la place d'Albert Bourla, qui n'a pas daigné se présenter, nous savons, de manière officielle, que les vaccins injectés à des millions de personnes sur la terre n'ont jamais été testés, faisant des injectés des cobayes et des morts-vivants en sursis. Ce simple point démontre que les gouvernements ont menti, que les médecins de plateaux ont menti, que les autorités sanitaires ont menti, que les médias mainstream ont menti, lorsqu'ils affirmaient que les vaccins étaient « sûrs et efficaces », qu'ils « empêchaient la contamination » et « protégeaient des formes graves de la maladie ».
Des millions de gens subissent aujourd'hui, dans leur chair, les conséquences de ces mensonges et voient leur santé irréversiblement dégradée et leurs vies détruites.
Je suis un journaliste viscéralement attaché à la vérité, et l'argent ne m'achète pas, car je suis aussi un croyant, un homme de foi. Trop vieux pour avoir peur et trop jeune pour me taire, je vis l'écriture comme une forme de mission.
Ce que nous subissons depuis fin 2019 restera dans l'Histoire comme le crime contre l'humanité le plus abject qui puisse être accompli.
Je prie Dieu pour que justice soit rendue à tous les anciens, euthanasiés dans les EHPAD, et à tous ceux qui ont perdu la vie après avoir fait confiance aux personnes qui étaient censées nous protéger et nous soigner.
La fracture est abyssale. La confiance dans les gouvernements, la médecine marchande et les médias est désormais rompue et rien ne sera plus comme avant. Tôt ou tard, toute la lumière devra être faite sur cette conspiration, et les criminels devront assumer pleinement la responsabilité de leurs actes. Il n'y aura pas de paix sans justice, et il ne peut y avoir de justice sans vérité.
Dieu m'en est témoin, j'ai fait ma part au service de la vérité, et d'autres continueront ce combat. J'aurais honte de moi jusque dans ma tombe, si je n'avais rien fait pour dénoncer ce crime abominable.
Ce livre est mon testament, pour mes enfants, pour ma famille, pour mes amis chers et pour mes frères et sœurs humains. Je veux aussi qu'il soit un hommage à mon confrère Julian Assange, injustement persécuté par nos fausses démocraties.
Je ne cherche pas à convaincre, mais à susciter la réflexion. Je fais confiance à l'intelligence collective.
Le temps dira si j'ai eu tort ou raison...

"Today, more than 200 million people have died following the vaccination campaign, and several billion are suffering seriously disabling side effects."

These figures appear to be greatly exaggerated.
Let us hope that the book provides serious elements to justify such an assertion.

Answer charles.cartaing

It is your comment that is superfluous, as long as we do not have the book in hand, we do not know if the book has serious sources to justify such a figure, so the question above is perfectly relevant
Approximately, we can assume that 15 billion doses were injected, and many studies assumed a figure of 1/1000 deaths, which is enormous (clinical trials on small samples are around this figure), in which case that would make 15 million.
Rancourt spoke about a larger sample of southern countries of 17 to 20 million, a study which is obviously very contested and still questionable because it is based on models...
so indeed a figure of 200 million deserves serious justification

I just downloaded the 12 volumes of the correspondence between Marx and Engels, something to keep me busy and stop wasting time with people who aren't worth it. If you're interested, I've added 3 links to my blog: a document, a film, and an interview about Palestine, all 3 of which are brilliant.

Gentlemen, start reading the book... The death toll that "seems" exaggerated to you is confirmed by researcher Denis Rancourt of the University of Ottawa with ultra-solid data. It is understandable that the psychological shock is hurtful in the minds of the media regular (not to use the actual words).

For example, EXCLUDING Covid19 in France with 68,5 million inhabitants, 50000 people die per month and 600000 per year and there are nearly 8,3 billion inhabitants on Earth.

Continued: The average global mortality rate being 7,7 there are therefore 640 million deaths per year. 200 million additional deaths over 3 years only makes 68 million more deaths per year, or 11% if the entire planet had been vaccinated)
Since the useless vaccination has been stopped, we can therefore assume that this whole, at least dubious, enterprise will have had a low global impact, and will have had a maximum deleterious effect on the richest populations and not on the third world that some were perhaps seeking to reduce.

I saw the Rancourt study which spoke of 17/20 million; so I wonder if he has produced another more recent one.... why don't you give the reference of this Rancourt study? and you could do without insinuating that people who question data coming out of a title at the back of a book, would be regulars of the propaganda media; that is what is hurtful

Very quickly. I remember that every time this Mr. Rancourt was quoted by Réinfocovid, Dr. Maudrux's blog, AIMSIB, for example, his conclusions never appeared very clearly, so I never referred to him out of caution or to avoid telling my readers nonsense; the subject is too sensitive, isn't it?

Here, readers don't think, they click, they are part of a clique, the clique of RI readers, this gives them a certain importance or authority, this is what they think, rather pathetic as far as I'm concerned, those interested will easily recognize themselves.

+ -7 −

Answer Tardieu

The Rancourt study on 17 million deaths is inevitably open to criticism, like any modeling, but it was nevertheless the subject of a very constructive debate on an internet chair in Canada, where scientists debated fairly, without invective, and I admit that Rancourt came out of it quite honorably, but to my knowledge, I have not seen this figure of 200 million deaths

I read the news about Thailand almost daily, where the media are starting their circus again but with a certain moderation all the same, namely a new sub-variant of omicron which seems to be active in China and which has been affecting Thailand for a good month; but one of the most hysterical virologists of the past period says that the strain is very contagious, but is treated like ordinary flu and with relatively few very serious cases
but it is obvious that we media will not be able to stop ourselves from trying to play a new card with the slightest external event... that said, be careful, the public is getting tired of broken records

The indisputable thing, in my opinion, is that the treatment of Covid (lockdown, health pass, media) is based on a totalitarian method and that the French have bowed down to this blackmail and the deprivation of restaurants. We have become unworthy of freedom.

In any case, the intention was criminal. One only has to add up the excess mortality rates in countries with high injection rates to get an idea of their effects. It must be added that we know nothing about the expected long-term effects. Obiter dictum, how many French parliamentarians received this injection? How many died suspiciously? The answer will give the level of what they knew.
